Our Glorious Fourth!

At the EAGLE HOTEL to-night, at 7:30, and we will have a glorious FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION!

The London Times in an editorial on the affairs of Mexico, gives the decided opinion that the sympathies of England are due to the same party which has secured the friendship of the United States, and says it makes the avowal with more emphasis because its correspondence apparently intimates that the British representatives have inclined to the opposite side. It regards with great satisfaction the alleged proceedings of the Americans.

The Woodstock (Vt.) Age says that Isaac T. Morgan, Esq., of Bethel, a member of the Windsor County Bar for the last ten years, committed suicide by shooting himself with a pistol, on Thursday of last week, in a room in his own house. He leaves a family.

On the 2d instant, at Pottsville, Pa., a vivid flash of lightning and deafening peal of thunder so alarmed the wife of Mr. George W. Potts, coal operator, while standing at her door, that it induced a fatal attack of heart disease. She fell back and died in a few moments. She was a niece of Hon. George M. Dallas, and a daughter of the late Trevanion B. Dallas, of Pittsburgh.

A fire broke out in Salem, Mass., about 1 o'clock, yesterday morning, in the stable of the Mission House, in Essex street, destroying it together with 16 horses. The Hoadley, whose name was Hatch was burned to death.

The flour and grain trade in Albany was never more dull than at present, and this seems to be the case in every city east and west of us. Speculation was rife three or four weeks ago, but it has since received a check that involves heavy losses. So says the Argus and Atlas.

The Albany Statesman says a passenger on last night's express train down on the Central Road says a large pile of wood in use of the R. R. Co.'s sheds at Oriskany was burning furiously. The Fire Engine was throwing water upon it, but vainly with but little effect.

We learn from the St. Paul papers of Saturday and Sunday, that that city and other towns above and below have suffered seriously from a flood in the Upper Mississippi.

Sufferers from Scrofula and Scrofulous affections, clean up! Why wear your Pimples, Blisters, Ulcers, Sores? Why have the life twisted out of you by Dyspepsia, Rheumatism and Gout? Why suffer by Phlegm and Mercutial diseases to rot the bones in your body, or the flesh off your bones? Why let your sluggish blood drag, and scatter its discharges through your veins? Arra's Gout, Ex's of Sarsaparilla cures these complaints, and cleanses them out of the system. Use it faithfully and you bring to society a healthier, cleaner and far more acceptable member.—Democrat, Baltimore, Md.

At Detroit, recently, an ox was killed because he could not understand the French language. The team, consisting of one English and one French ox, drawing a heavy load and driven by a French driver, was crossing the railroad track when the express train made its appearance. The driver, in great excitement, immediately ordered his oxen to "chuck," the French word for "bow." The French ox understood him, and turning off the track, saved himself, but the English ox, never having studied the language, pressed further on, and was instantly killed.

At the retirement of the present administrator Mr. Buchanan will be seventy years of age. Gen. Cass will be in his seventy-ninth year. Two old veterans will withdraw from the public stage marked with worldly honors.

A NEW CHALLENGE FROM SEVERITY TO PHILAS.—We are informed by correspondents at Detroit, that a movement is on foot in that city to comply with the demands of Mr. Phelan, in relation to the amount of money requisite for a new encounter between him and Severity; and that a private subscription will shortly be set on foot to meet the necessary sum for a match of $25,000 a side and the Championship of America. This movement, we are assured, will proceed from pure city pride, and not from any love of gain; and it will be confined to the main by a gentleman who, ordinarily do not take much interest in matters of any kind. Having learned that Phelan is determined not to play for a less stake than $25,000, and being very confident in the ability of their champion to redeem his laurels, they are determined to come up to the mark of Mr. Phelan's declaration, and give their representative another chance. As we know that this information is sent to us in good faith, we will look with much interest to the first solid signal, in the shape of an initial installment of $5,000. Let Mr. Phelan, therefore, look after his business, and prepare for the list, again.—Porter's Spirit.

On the 2d inst, a severe thunder storm passed over Pottsville, Pa., and a vivid flash of lightning, accompanied with a crashing peal of thunder, so shocked Mrs. George W. Potts, who was standing in the doorway, that she fell back and died almost immediately. She was a daughter of T. B. Dallas, of Pittsburgh, had been married about a year and was near her first confinement.

ANOTHER SICKLES AFFAIR.—The West Troy Democrat has been put in possession of the particulars of the shooting of a young man who formerly resided in that city, by the father of a girl said to have been seduced by the young man. The affair took place in Stillwater, Saratoga county.

We give the account as furnished the Democrat, which paper vouches for the credibility of the statement:

"The citizens of this place were thrown into great excitement last night by a report which reached us about sunset that Hiram D. Case had been shot by Arthur Holden for improper relations with his (Holden's) daughter. This Case was formerly clerk in a Dry Goods establishment in Albany. His parents and friends live about five miles north of this place. Last December he came home and stayed about here for three weeks, and during the time got acquainted with Miss Holden. She was the daughter of a poor man, but bore a good character. As circumstances have since shown, Case, under promise of marriage, ruined her. As soon as her father knew this, he swore that Case should answer for the crime with his life. Mr. Holden served in the Mexican war, and with him to say, was to perform. Since the first of March, Case has resided with his parents, and last night came down to Holden's, when Holden, as he entered the gate shot him through the heart with a rifle. He died almost instantly. Holden gave himself up to the authorities, and made no resistance, simply remarking that he had done his duty. There is a great deal of feeling here upon the subject, and a large number of people have been to the place where the tragedy occurred, which is about two miles north of the village. I will inform you further upon this subject if any new facts are developed.

Yours truly,
MILES H. ROSSIGNOL."

Every morning a middle-aged gentleman walks down Broadway, from Blacker to Wall street, who has trod daily the same route for 25 years. Twenty years ago, being convicted of the evil and extravagance of smoking, he resolved to lay aside the trifles spent in cigars, amounting to only two or three dollars. He has adhered to that resolution ever since, and the sum of those little expenditures, weekly deposited in a savings bank, has reached this day, two thousand five hundred and ninety dollars.

It is stated on the authority of the Buffalo Republic that the Pennsylvania Central road commenced yesterday morning, in New York, to sell tickets through to Chicago over their route $121 and from New York to Detroit, via Cleveland, for $10. This is the lowest fare ever made between those two points, and looks as if the Southern route were determined to carry on the war in good earnest. All we have to add by way of comment on this is: "The devil take the hindmost."

A couple were married in Pawtucket last week, one of whom—the girl—was less than thirteen years old. The bridegroom was a few years older. It was a runaway match, and took place in the absence from home of the father, who is a respectable farmer in North Providence. The bride absented herself from school on pretense of illness, but it appears she recovered sufficiently to leave home without her mother's knowledge, and return a wife.

An Indian fracas occurred at the Tuscarora settlement, five miles from Suspension Bridge, on Monday evening, in which an Indian named Chew was stabbed in the neck with a knife by another Indian, named Patterson. The former died in a few minutes thereafter. It appears that Patterson had a quarrel with a brother of the murdered man, when the latter interposed to settle the difference, received the stab as above stated.

The Chicago Democrat of the 4th inst. says a whirlwind passed over Pontonville, Stephenson Co. Illinois, on Saturday last. It formed a water-spout in the Rock River, and passed through the woods penetrated the forest timber for a space of one hundred feet wide and a considerable distance in length. Some four miles further it demolished two barns, tore off the roof of a house, etc. The water was carried a distance of four miles from the river.

Mr. David Vail, a much respected citizen of North Salem, Mass., mysteriously disappeared from his family on the third of last month, and was neither heard from nor seen until Saturday, when his body was found suspended to a tree in an advanced state of decomposition, with a strip of bark fastened around his neck, by Mr. Starr Fields. One hand was thrust into his pocket, and clasped in it was found $22 in bills, which he had collected.

The heirs of Hon. W. B. Clarke of Washington County are likely to receive $100,000 for their portion of the revenue from the British Government for the use of Henry J. Roger's signals.

NEWS SUMMARY

—The residence of Mr. Levi Pennfield, in Montgomery County, Maryland, was destroyed by fire on the night of Friday last. Two promising lads, sons of Mr. Pennfield, were asleep at the time the fire broke out, and could not be reached, were burned to death. One of the lads was 13, and the other 9 years old.

—The Mineral Point Tribune says on the 25th, while a young man named James was employed in a field with a harrow, he had occasion to turn it over. He turned around to look at something else, when his foot caught, throwing him down and the harrow on top of him, one of the teeth entered his body, passing between two of his ribs, penetrating to the depth of about four inches. He is likely to recover.
